Guide Right is the national service program of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. It serves to develop leadership skills and improve the life outcomes of African-American and Latino male youth.

The Gaithersburg-Rockville MD Alumni Chapter is re-launching its Guide Right Program. Members of this chapter are developing a program to fulfill Guide Right's national purpose. This program aims to work with middle school age males in the Gaithersburg Rockville area. Students will develop leadership skills, life skills, and develop a healthy mentoring relationship with brothers of this chapter while planning ways to give back to their community.
